

Department of Computer Science and Engineering
Mini Project Progress Presentation-1 2023

NOTICE

1. The schedule for the Mini Project Progress Presentation-1 of B.Tech 6th Semester students is given below:

| Date | Time | Section | Venue |
|------------|--------------|---------|----------|
| 25/03/2023 | 9 AM onwards | A | PG&R Lab |
| 25/03/2023 | 2 PM onwards | B | MP Lab |
| 25/03/2023 | 2 PM onwards | C | PG&R Lab |

Progress Presentation Report and Power Point Presentation (PPT) must contain the following:

- Title of the project, Name of Group members, Name of project guide
- Abstract (1 page)
- Introduction (2 Pages max.)
- Literature survey (2 Pages max.)

A format for tabular representation of the paper is given below:

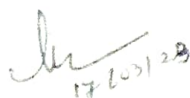

- a) Findings: It should include the salient features, the pros and cons of each of the paper referred.
- b) Relevance of any of the features learned in the survey to the project

| SL No | Author & Paper Details | Findings | Relevance to the project |
|-------|------------------------|----------|--------------------------|
|-------|------------------------|----------|--------------------------|

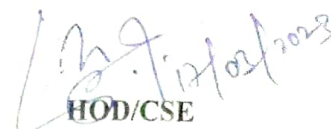

- Problem Definition (1 Page)
- Solution strategy (It will make possible suggestions to the problem defined) (1 Page)
- Design (3 pages max.)
- Work done till date (3 pages max.): Include details of input, functional modules, outputs (if any). Also mention details of challenges faced.
- Work done (1 page)
- Work to be done (1 page)
- Gantt Chart (1 Page)
- References (1 Page)

NOTE:

- Slides in the PPT should have bulleted points only.
- Report has to be written elaborately in paragraphs form.
- Signature of guide is mandatory in both copies of the report. Without guide's signature in the reports, presentation will not be conducted.
- No. of copies of report to be printed = 02. Reports have to be submitted in stick files.

17/03/2023

Mini Project Coordinator

HOD/CSE